— WE GATHER IN FAITH —

Welcome

This Thanksgiving, many of us have set out fewer plates and chairs than we have in years before. This meal marks the beginning of the final days of what has been a long and difficult year for many of us. Even so, we still can find reasons to come together through wifi and internet signals to give thanks to God.

Jesus used the parable of a great banquet to which all people are invited in order to talk about what the “kin-dom” of God looks like. Jesus knew that all people need connection and inclusion, and if there is anything we have learned these past 8 months, it is that he was right; we need to come together. Jesus assures us all, saying “you have a place at the table” and challenges us to extend the invitation to all, so that all people know they are welcome in our churches and in God’s family – even if that may be via phone or laptop right now.

Like many of our friends and family this holiday season, Jesus is not physically beside us, yet every time we gather around a table and remember him, he is present. So let us now light a candle on our own tables to symbolize the Holy Spirit who has come to dine.

Lighting the Candles “In the Lord, I’ll be Ever Thankful” Taize
As you listen to the music, you may light the candle(s) on your dining table to symbolize the presence of Christ at our feast. Once you learn the song, sing along as a meditative prayer.

Many of our friends and family are also not physically present at our Thanksgiving tables. They do not sit beside us because of this virus, because of the miles, or because they have died. Let us now set out plates and chairs for those loved ones who cannot be with us in body with us tonight, but who dine with us in Spirit -- present in our hearts, and in our memories.

As you listen to the music, you may set places at your table to symbolize the presence of those who would be dining with you this Thanksgiving.

A Ritual of Hand-Washing “Down to the River to Pray” Oak Grove Church

As the music plays, you may walk away from zoom to take turns washing and drying one another's hands at a sink. You may use soap and water, mindfully washing between each finger, the palms and backs of each other's hands. Depending on your home, this ritual may be somber or joyful, serious and gentle or playful. There is no wrong way to do this.

As you wash one another's hands (or your own if you are by yourself), say:

All: May this water cleanse your Spirit.

Then gently dry one another's hands saying:

All: May you feel God's tender care.

After each home has finished the ritual of washing, you may gather back at the table.

Thanksgiving Communion

Three households will be assigned ahead of time as reading households 1, 2, and 3, and are marked by color. All read in the bolded black words, but please remain muted.

House 1 = maroon, House 2 = blue, House 3 = green, and All = black.

House 1: Tonight, we give thanks for all the blessings in our lives,
Remembering that all good gifts come from God above.
We also give thanks for the life of Jesus,
Whose teachings on how to love and live
are re-enacted in the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

House 2: Our worship, therefore, circles around the table.
Here we share the bread.
We share the cup.
We share the good news.
And in this way,
we become part of the Eternal Story.

Prayer of Invitation

House 1: If you long for company amid isolation,

All: We make room for you.

House 2: If pray for healing amid a world of illness and brokenness,

All: We make room for you.

House 3: If you seek hope amid your grief,

All: We make room for you.

House 1: If you have come here tonight,

All: We make room for each other.

Great Remembrance

House 2: Indeed Jesus made room for all God's children,
For when he was at table, the doors were open wide
to sinners and saints,
to the proud and humble,
to the rich and poor,
to the young and old,
to the healthy and sick.

House 3: Even on his last night,
Jesus even made room for the one who would betray him.
And at that meal,
He took a loaf of bread,
and after thanking God,
he broke it,
and shared it with his friends, saying,

All: “Take and eat,
this is my body broken for you.”

House 1: Later, he took the cup,
gave God thanks again,
and shared it, saying:

All: “Take and drink, all of you:

This is the cup of the new covenant,
my poured-out life.
Whenever you break bread,
remember me.”

Blessing our Meal

House 2: Let us pray...

Bless each soul present this feast,
Even those beyond time and space,
Beyond our human eyes,
Beyond our screens,
And may we extend special seats of welcome tonight
to friends and family we miss,
to first responders and medical professionals working,
to the unemployed and underemployed,
to the teachers bravely carrying on,
to the anxious and the lonely,
to those currently fighting this illness,
and to the loved ones of the 1.2 million souls lost to Covid-19.

All: Come God, love within us.
Come Holy Spirit, host before us!
Come Jesus, guest beside us!
Amen!

Serving One Another

You are invited to serve one another the bread on your table saying simply:

All: “The bread of heaven.”

After all have been served bread, all are then invited to raise a cup and drink together saying simply:

All: “The cup of salvation.”

After sharing the bread and cup, dig in and enjoy your meal!
